

Large Auto Door Switch Streamline Striplight
Model: SL-60-DS

| DIMENSIONS   | TECHNICAL DATA                                                                                                                    | FEATURES                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | SPECIFICATIONS                                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 595mm x 31mm | Total lumens: 880Colour temp: 2,700KPower supply: 220-240V, Double InsulatedCRI: 84Wattage: 8Beam angle: 270° | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Door switched model</li><li>• Supplied with normally closed integrated micro switch</li><li>• Optional universal actuator bracket for difficult installations</li><li>• Ideal for use in cupboards and pantries</li><li>• Made in New Zealand</li></ul> | Lamp included: YesLamp holder type: S14sNumber of lamps: 1Technology field: LED ReplaceableIndoor / Outdoor: IndoorMounting type: Ceiling, Wall |

